Dan Kuster

Interim Chief Financial Officer

About Thunderbird:

Thunderbird is the world's No. 1-ranked school of international business with more than 65 years of experience in developing leaders with the global mindset, business skills and social responsibility necessary to create real, sustainable value for their organizations, communities and the world. Dedicated to preparing students to be global leaders and committed global citizens, Thunderbird was the first graduate business school to adopt an official Professional Oath of Honor. Thunderbird's global network of alumni numbers 40,000 graduates in 147 nations worldwide. The school is sought out by graduate students, working professionals and companies seeking to gain the skills necessary for success in today's global economy.

www.thunderbird.edu

Areas of Expertise:

Capital Budgeting, Acquisitions Integration, Management Reporting, Regulatory Reporting, Decision Support, Internal Controls Design, Process Design, Program Management, and General Management and Leadership.

Dan Kuster is a senior financial executive with deep experience in mortgage and commercial banking. At Thunderbird he has helped to develop a transparent, comprehensive financial forecast for the school and to establish systems and processes that allow the school to closely manage its expenses, revenue and cash positions. Prior to his arrival at Thunderbird in July 2012, Dan worked as an independent consultant focused on mortgage companies, community banks and startup businesses. He also has worked in executive positions at Irwin Home Equity, Countrywide Bank and Bank One. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in Economics from Denison University in Granville, Ohio.