Peter J. Hill

Chief Operating Officer

About Thunderbird:

Thunderbird is the world's No. 1-ranked school of international business with more than 65 years of experience in developing leaders with the global mindset, business skills and social responsibility necessary to create real, sustainable value for their organizations, communities and the world. Dedicated to preparing students to be global leaders and committed global citizens, Thunderbird was the first graduate business school to adopt an official Professional Oath of Honor. Thunderbird's global network of alumni numbers 40,000 graduates in 147 nations worldwide. The school is sought out by graduate students, working professionals and companies seeking to gain the skills necessary for success in today's global economy.

www.thunderbird.edu

Areas of Expertise:

Finance, accounting, risk management, training, sales, and working across the organization to extend strategic vision and business planning objectives.

As Chief Operating Officer, Pete Hill oversees the business aspects of Thunderbird's management, including finance and accounting, information and instructional technology, enrollment and student services, marketing and communications, human resources, alumni relations and external affairs, business strategy and operations, and executive education. Prior to joining Thunderbird, Mr. Hill worked in the commercial banking industry for 35 years, including senior roles that have required him to make substantial improvements to business processes. Most recently, he served as Director of Credit Administration and Chief Credit Officer for an Arizona-based bank. His responsibilities included regulatory compliance, policy formulation, credit risk management, appraisal review, loan documentation and accounting and problem loan resolution. Mr. Hill previously has been active in working with the Diocese of Phoenix School Board and Finance Council. His professional experience in banking extends across many industry types, including higher education. Mr. Hill has a Bachelor of Science and MBA from Arizona State University. Originally from New Mexico, he and his wife live in Phoenix and have four children. He enjoys hiking, outdoor activities, auto racing, and traveling for these interests.