

Hideki Kunitada

Instructor of Japanese

About Thunderbird:

Thunderbird is the world's No. 1-ranked school of international business with more than 65 years of experience in developing leaders with the global mindset, business skills and social responsibility necessary to create real, sustainable value for their organizations, communities and the world. Dedicated to preparing students to be global leaders and committed global citizens, Thunderbird was the first graduate business school to adopt an official Professional Oath of Honor. Thunderbird's global network of alumni numbers 40,000 graduates in 147 nations worldwide. The school is sought out by graduate students, working professionals and companies seeking to gain the skills necessary for success in today's global economy.

www.thunderbird.edu

Areas of Expertise:

Japanese

Mr. Kunitada teaches Japanese language and culture to high school students and graduate students. He teaches Elementary Japanese 1 and Business Japanese at Thunderbird.

He completed his MA at the University of Phoenix and is a certified Japanese teacher by the Arizona Department of Education. He has worked as a sales person, coordinating international business training for company employees and government workers at ECC Foreign Language Institute Nagoya in Japan. The training mostly focused on foreign language and was related to each company's business area, such as manufacturing.

He has traveled to France, Northwest Africa, crossed the Sahara Desert, Kazakhstan, Russia and South Korea.

Mr. Kunitada is a member of Arizona Association of Teachers of Japanese (AATJ).

Language Faculty, Thunderbird Language Faculty, Gilbert Public Schools MAED in Secondary Education: University of Phoenix BA Literature/ East Asian History - Aichi University (Japan)

Educating global leaders who create sustainable prosperity worldwide