

Andre Klein

Instructor of French

About Thunderbird:

Thunderbird is the world's No. 1-ranked school of international business with more than 65 years of experience in developing leaders with the global mindset, business skills and social responsibility necessary to create real, sustainable value for their organizations, communities and the world. Dedicated to preparing students to be global leaders and committed global citizens, Thunderbird was the first graduate business school to adopt an official Professional Oath of Honor. Thunderbird's global network of alumni numbers 40,000 graduates in 147 nations worldwide. The school is sought out by graduate students, working professionals and companies seeking to gain the skills necessary for success in today's global economy.

www.thunderbird.edu

Courses:

French

Professor Andre Klein is an Associate Professor of French in the Garvin Center for Language & Culture at Thunderbird School of Global Management.

Professor Klein has taught beginning, intermediate, and advanced classes at Thunderbird since the fall of 1972. He was instrumental in bringing "SCOLA" to the Thunderbird campus in 1989. He continues to incorporate multimedia as well as the Internet, in the classroom. He obtained his M.A. from New York University in 1971. He also completed 60 additional graduate credits towards a Ph.D. in French literature from the City University of New York, before coming to Thunderbird.

Professor Klein co-authored eight pedagogical newsletters entitled "MINITEL, la b.d. du prof" on how to best integrate the French videotext system in the classroom. He directed Thunderbird's 1989 summer Paris program and co-directed Thunderbird's summer Paris program, in 1992.

He is presently a third year member of the Personnel committee of the Department of Modern Languages and is on the editorial board of The Journal of Languages for International Business.