

Warren Wilhelm, Ph.D.

Adjunct Professor

About Thunderbird:

Thunderbird is the world's No. 1-ranked school of international business with more than 65 years of experience in developing leaders with the global mindset, business skills and social responsibility necessary to create real, sustainable value for their organizations, communities and the world. Dedicated to preparing students to be global leaders and committed global citizens, Thunderbird was the first graduate business school to adopt an official Professional Oath of Honor. Thunderbird's global network of alumni numbers 40,000 graduates in 147 nations worldwide. The school is sought out by graduate students, working professionals and companies seeking to gain the skills necessary for success in today's global economy.

www.thunderbird.edu

Areas of Expertise:

Leadership Development, Human Resource Management, Organizational and Individual Learning, Large-scale Organizational Change, Organization Development

Warren Wilhelm is an expert in human resource management, leadership development, organization development, and large-scale organizational change. He has a BS in Psychology and Economics from Union College, and Masters and Doctoral degrees in Business Administration from the Harvard Business School.

Dr. Wilhelm has been a management consultant for over 20 years. He taught full-time for five years in graduate business schools, and has been an industrial practitioner and executive for 14 years. He was head of organization and management development for Amoco Corporation and Vice President, Corporate Education for AlliedSignal Inc. He currently teaches in executive and graduate degree programs at Thunderbird School of Global Management, the Cox School of Business at SMU, and the Melbourne Business School in Australia. He has taught in executive education programs for over 20 years, and published many articles in his areas of expertise.

Warren Wilhelm serves as President of the Global Consulting Alliance (<http://www.globalconsultalliance.com/>). His consulting clients have included Bank One, GE, Honeywell International, SBC Communications, Skanska, Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Stora Enso, ING Group, Frito-Lay International and Goldman Sachs.

Dr. Wilhelm's latest book, "Learning Architectures: Building Organizational and Individual Learning" (ISBN 0-9740104-0-5) is in its second printing. He also serves on the Editorial Boards of the Journal of Human Resource Management and the Thunderbird International Business Review, and is Executive Director of the Global Learning and Development Network.

Educating global leaders who create sustainable prosperity worldwide