

EMBA Endowed Scholarship established by the Silva & Bradbury Families 1999

History: The EMIM Loan Fund was established in 1999 by combining a contribution from the Silva/Bradbury families with Class Gifts from EMIM classes 1, 2, 3, and 5. This Silva/Bradbury contribution honors Grey and Fern Silva, grandparents of George Bradbury – EMIM 7, for their lifelong commitment to education. In 2010, the EMIM Scholarship Fund and the EMIM Loan Fund were combined to create this EMBA Endowed Scholarship established by the Silva & Bradbury Families 1999.

Criteria: Scholarships will be available to entering EMBA students who meet the School's general admission requirements and have been offered admission through the Office of Admissions. Additional criteria to be suggested/approved by George Bradbury '99

Process: Top qualifying student(s) will be selected by the Admissions Office as the potential recipients of this scholarship award. The student(s) applications will be submitted to the donors for review and recommendation. Final award will be made by the Thunderbird Scholarship Committee

Award Amount: Based on earnings.
