

Development Organizations and Global Business: Best Practices and Cutting-Edge Initiatives

Washington, D.C.
June 5 -June 10, 2011

Co-Sponsors:

Program Description

Participants in this one-week program will meet in the Board and Executive Conference rooms of major prominent development organizations. The organizations include government agencies, global companies, and international organizations. Microfinance specialists include the World Bank and the Calvert Foundations. The program's goals are to provide a broad and insightful overview of today's myriad contemporary issues and practices facing developmental organizations.

The program includes guest speakers, panel presentations, on-site visits, and many informal discussions. This program is offered in Washington DC to maximize access to leading individuals and institutions operating in the above organizations.

Program location: Washington, D.C.

Maximum number of participants: 25

Cost: $650.00

This price includes all meetings, discussions and program activities. This fee does not include airfare, accommodations, meals and local transportation in Washington, D.C.

Who Should Attend this Program?

This program will be valuable to undergraduate students, graduate students, and business people with career interests in international development, global business, global finance, international studies, and international organizations.

Development Organizations and Global Business: Best Practices and Cutting-Edge Initiatives

June 5-June 10, 2011

Washington, D.C.

Pre-requisites and Focus Areas

- Focus areas: International development global business, global entrepreneurship, microfinance and development finance.

The student should have at least a 3.1 grade point average or relevant experience.

Faculty Expectations of Students

A pre-course reading assignment will be provided to all participants. Students are required to attend and participate in all meetings and discussions.

Activities/Tentative Class Schedule

The schedule of speakers or workshops throughout the day is supplemented by various site visits to selected global and financial institutions. The class hours are from 9:00 AM through 6:00 PM each day and include several evening events.

Prospective MFI and Development Organizations Include (subject to change):

World Bank/IFC/CGAP
US State Department
MXF Solutions Co.
Calvert Foundation
International Finance Corp.
Microvest – MF investment firm (commercial)
OikoCredit – privately owned – funnel funds to MFIs
IFAD (Int'l Fund for Agricultural Development)
FINCA
ACDI VOCA
ACCION

Inquiries:

Dr. Jane Ives

Director

NGO Global Internship Programs & Global
Leadership in Microfinance Programs

Thunderbird Global Financial Services Center

Thunderbird School of Global Management

617-964-7120

ivesj@thunderbird.edu

Please complete application and register online at:

http://www.regonline.com/washington_dc_microfinance_institutions